

The CLL Centres de Langues is looking for (m/f)

FREELANCE
CZECH TRAINERS

to complete its team of trainers responsible for teaching their maternal language to personnel from the European Institutions and Agencies of the European Union based in Brussels.

Our job offer:

- A motivating, professional project in international institutions
- A challenging opportunity to teach an international and multicultural audience
- Full or part-time posts available
- The possibility to be part of a team with an ambitious professional project
- The opportunity to develop your skills through on-going training schemes offered by CLL.

Your profile:

- You have a university degree in languages
- You have had a minimum 2,400 hours experience over at least 3 years since 2002 in teaching your native language to an international adult audience
- You are in possession of a laptop and are familiar with new technologies used in the classroom
- You are well-organised, enthusiastic and have good communication skills.
- Please send your CV even if your profile doesn't meet all those criteria.

Interested?

Please send your application to eujobs@cll.ucl.ac.be ensuring that all of the following are attached to your letter of motivation:

- your CV in Europass format,
- a copy of your university degree/post-graduate diploma in the language domain,
- a copy of both sides of your identity card,
- details of your former employers who may be contacted for reference purposes.