

Winter Course in March

German Language and Culture (Beginner/A1/A2)

1 - 19 March 2021

Our Online Offer

The Summer and Winter University of the Language Teaching Center of the University of Freiburg offers you a chance to learn German across the closed borders. Improve your language skills, regional expertise and cultural competence during our Online Winter Course.

The interactive online language course is delivered by experienced German teachers. In small groups you can deepen and expand your oral and written German skills with the help of multiple conversation exercises, current listening and reading texts and modern grammar tasks. Due to intensive training, you will be able to make quick progress in German language learning. A graded certificate with up to 7 ECTS credits will be issued upon successful course completion.
